

The prevalence of back pain is four times higher in developing countries.

Don't turn your back on spinal disorders.

